

INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIP REPORT - 1985

The International Fellowship has experienced remarkable growth this year. We thank the Lord for the many He has sent to us of every culture.

A summary of our activities follows:

In January the Billy Graham film, "Shokari Pass," was shown, featuring the country of Japan.

Missionary Gene Lamay, appointee to the International Correspondence Institute in Belgium, was guest speaker in February. Nine languages were evident in posters around the Chapel, translating John 3:16.

Members of the Philadelphia International Assembly, with their Pastor Hernandez, were our guests at the March Fellowship.

In April, Richard Kabazzi, Philadelphia director of the International Students, was invited to speak but misunderstood the dates. A good time of fellowship and singing was enjoyed anyway.

Joining with the Sunday School, the International Fellowship enjoyed a Cook-out at Valley Forge. Although the rain poured down, it was a most enjoyable day of fellowship, inspiration and instruction in the history of our great country.

A full bus load, accompanied by the Pastor, enjoyed a day of friendship and sight-seeing in Washington, D.C., in June.

In August, the International Fellowship celebrated their second anniversary with a roast beef dinner served to everyone and a Rally afterward on a Sunday evening. Brother Wolowec spoke about the persecuted church in Poland and their hunger for the Word of God.

Our Korean Pastor, Rev. Chong To Kim, preached his first sermon and gave his testimony in English, in the September meeting.

Sister Mary Malcolm, missionary in residence at Valley Forge Christian College, spoke of her ministry in Kenya, Africa.

November's meeting was interesting with Brother Snag Kim, former member of the Korean Diplomatic Corps to Ghana, West Africa, giving his testimony. Sang Kim and his lovely wife also ministered in song. They are students preparing for the ministry at Valley Forge Christian College.

Climaxing the year, the International Fellowship celebrated Christmas by trimming a very special Christmas tree, tracing the genealogy of Jesus. Gifts were exchanged by all. Sister Rosa Reineker and Sister Suzanne Wickramaratne were special guests.

Our average attendance was 80. Projects through the year were:

1. A monthly gift to International Students
2. A monthly gift to Valley Forge Christian College Student Ministries
3. A scholarship to Andrew Ragodo to a Christian High School.
