

Bro. P. D. Daniel, Dean of the School, gives the boys instruction on "How to Prepare Sermons". There is always emphasis on the practical side of preaching, and Homiletics is a popular class with the boys.

Many of the boys testify that here in the class rooms, under anointed preaching, they have entered into a new appreciation and understanding of God's Word.

The cooks helper grinds flour, in the kitchen. This flour will make tasty "Dosies" [Indian Pancakes]

Like this flour, God also grinds us, that we might become a means of feeding spiritually hungry souls.
