

Thirsty? Hot? There is nothing that quenches thirst like the water of a tender coconut.

One of the students,
quite adept at climbing,
goes after a coconut.
Would you like
to try it?

Vegetables must be grown to help with the school budget-and all students must take a turn caring for the gardens.

Lazy boys never make good preachers-so they are encouraged to put 2 hours a day working in the school.