

Rev. John W. Clark

The Rev. John W. Clark of Upper Salford Township died July 18 in Quakertown Manor. He was 81.

He was the husband of Naomi Madison Clark. They were married 57 years in May.

Born in Philadelphia, he was a son of the late William D. and Mary E. Flack Clark.

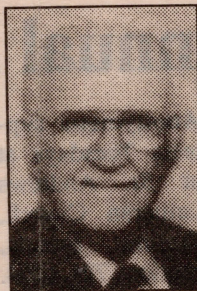

He was a minister in the Assembly of God Church for over 40 years. He was a pastor to churches in Quakertown, Meadville, West Longbranch, N.J., Ephrata and Lititz, where he retired in 1989.

For the past two years, he had been serving as pastor of visitation at the Family Worship Center in Lansdale. He was instrumental in growth of the congregations at all the churches where he served and built five new churches in the seven assignments. He served eight years as presbyter for the Assembly of God churches while in Lancaster County.

He was a member of the Family Worship Center, Lansdale.

He was a Navy veteran of World War II serving stateside.

In addition to his wife, he is

The Rev. John Clark Worship Center, Building Fund, 1000 Troxel Rd., Lansdale, 19446.

*Arrangements: Jeffrey A. Naugle
Funeral Home, Quakertown.*

survived by two grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Services were held Monday.

Contributions may be made to the Family

Worship